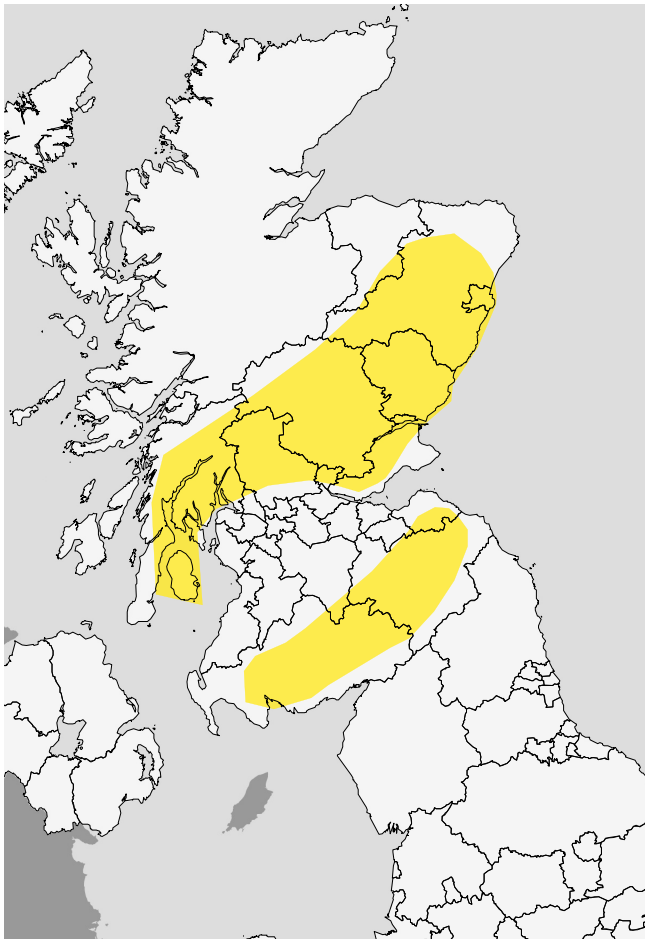
Yellow warning
Rain

Between
03:00 Sat 19 Aug 2023 and
12:00 Sat 19 Aug 2023



Heavy rain brings the potential for some disruption on Saturday morning.

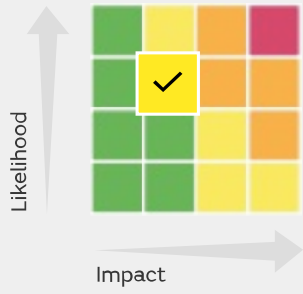
What to expect

- Bus and train services probably affected with journeys taking longer, with the possibility of cancellations.
- Spray and flooding on roads probably making journeys longer.
- Flooding of a few homes and businesses is possible.

Further details

A period of heavy rain is expected to affect many parts of Scotland through the first part of Saturday. Totals of 20-30mm could fall quite widely within the warning area, with the highest rainfall totals expected over east-facing high ground in the Angus Hills and the Grampian Mountains where 40-60 mm could accumulate in one or two spots, and much of the rainfall will occur in a relatively short period time, typically 3 to 4 hours.

Strong and gusty southeasterly winds will accompany the rain, with gusts perhaps as high as 40 mph around some exposed coasts and hills in the east.



✓ Medium likelihood of low impacts
